CENTER OF ACTIVITY

Student life at Rensselaer High

School is centered around the study hall. We gather here before school begins in the morning and during our noon-hour to talk over the latest in gossip, be with our favorite member of the opposite sex, and sometimes even catch up on our studying. But as soon as the final bell rings, a cloak of silence falls over the study hall, and we resolve ourselves to the fate of preparing our daily classroom assignments.

NEWCOMER'S DILEMMA

COKES FOR THE THIRSTY

It seemed as if the entire student body attended the All-School Party, which proved to be Rensselaer High School's most successful. After the recreation was over, we certainly appreciated the cokes and ice cream sandwiches served by the Student Council members. Our thanks go to them and their capable advisor, Mr. Calvin Beaman, for sponsoring this annual mixer.

DIG THIS!

We began this unforgettable night with a Grand March which thoroughly mingled us with our fellow students. We were then divided into four groups in order to proceed with the evening's schedule of activities. In the games and dances which followed all semblance of class disappeared as the green freshmen mixed with the high and mighty seniors. And when the party was all over, we were glad we had welcomed the freshmen in this manner.

THE MOMBO?

The Jasper County Rural Youth lent a new touch to this year's party as they took charge of the evening's festivities. Not only did they provide for our entertainment with group games and dances, but they brought the program to a fitting close by exhibiting their own talents in the form of a skit and a square dance. They also deserve our thanks for the important part they played in making the party a success.

PIGSKIN, PRINCESSES, AND PARADES

S. Jensen, Sen. attendant; J. Hopkins; J. Hansen, Queen; B. Stevens; M. Key; D. Wagner, Jun. attendant; J. Fleming; S. Tonner, Soph. attendant; J. Moore, Frosh attendant.

Jensen,
Hansen

Our homecoming was a memorable occasion. We'll never forget our lovely queen Joan Hansen, as she was crowned by Murray Key, vice-president of the senior class. Nor will we forget the rest of the pageantry of that night when the Bombers crushed Dyer before a huge crowd.

Clouse

The judges had a difficult time choosing the best float in the parade. The D. C. E.'s unique string of floats, pictured upper left, finally won the first prize. Above is the Pep Club float and at the lower left is the F. H. A. float.

"ONE FOOT IN HEAVEN"

During our junior year we began to display our theatric talents by presenting "One Foot in Heaven," a three act play by the Reverend William Spence. We spent weeks of diligent rehearsing under the direction of Mr. Robert Pabst before we finally presented the play, which portrayed the trials and tribulations of a Methodist minister's family in a small Iowa town, to an approving audience which packed the gym.

"DON'T TAKE MY PENNY"

In our final year at RHS we again took to the stage. This time under the capable directing of Mr. C. T. Keller we presented a comedy, "Don't Take My Penny" by Anne Coulter Martens. Again a packed house saw us present the second hit play of our high school careers, which was about a teen age girl who wanted to go to Hollywood and her boy friends attempts to discourage her.

CANDLE LIGHT CANTATA

MUSIC AND MIRTH

From the first note of "Adeste Fidelis" to the last sweet chord of "Silent Night," our Christmas program was a tremendous success. Before a beautiful backdrop depicting an early 1900 Christmas, the chorus and band under the direction of Mr. Mau presented an exciting program of Christmas music to a packed house. Special numbers by a flute quartet, and the Girl's Glee Club plus solos by Lula Mae Schultz, Chuck Tilton, and Sandra Lintner helped to make the evening a memorable one.

SAFETY FIRST

Those of us who live in the country and come to school on the busses certainly appreciate our bus drivers. No matter how bad the weather, they faithfully carry us to school in the morning and return us safely to our homes at night.

SOUP'S ON!

(COOKS): Mrs. Earl Long, Mrs. Max Pullin, Mrs. Wm. Staddon, Mrs. Virgil Daniels, Mrs. Harry Gallagher.

When we eat in the school cafeteria, we find home cooking just like mom's. Our cooks work hard to prepare one square meal a day for those of us who find it inconvenient to eat lunch at home, and we certainly owe our thanks to them.

MAINTENANCE MEN

The entire student body values the work our four high school janitors do. They have a man-size job in keeping the school buildings in tip-top repair and we sometimes wonder how they can be so pleasant about doing it.

MUSIC-MAKERS

Throughout the year we brighten life at Rensselaer High School with music ranging from Sousa to Sibelius. Our marching band performed at every home football game, and half of us alternated entertaining at the home basketball games. In October we participated along with 82 other Hoosier bands in Purdue's High School Day. In mid-December we collaborated with the chorus in a memorable Christmas program. When spring rolled around, we joined with the four other county bands to present the County Music Festival. A few weeks later we followed with our own Spring Festival. We closed our year with the band picnic sponsored by the Band Mothers.

"Alas for those who never sing, 'Holmes' sentiments from The Voiceless reflect ours exactly, for singing certainly adds immeasurably to our enjoyment of life. Our major appearances of the year were in the annual Christmas program and the Spring festival. Part of us were also chosen to participate in the Purdue Chorus, The Variety Show, and various other special activities throughout the school year.

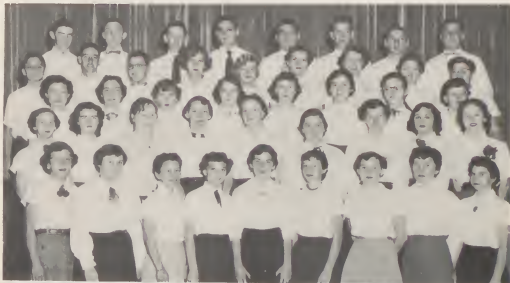

From the regular chorus a group of girls is chosen by Mr. Mau for the Girl's Glee Club. This group practiced once a week after school to put on special numbers for various community activities throughout the year.

BUSY AS BEES

As our name indicates, we spend all year spreading "sunshine" throughout our school and community. At the beginning of the year we choose our ideal ladies and it takes all we can muster to keep our identities a secret for a whole year. During the year we hold a number of social occasions which all enjoy, the Football Supper, Dads' Supper, Sunshine Dance, and Mothers' Day Tea. But most of our time is spent helping others by doing such things as assisting in the annual polio drive, sending wreaths to the Jasper County Hospital at Christmas, helping to support Riley Hospital in Indianapolis, and sending packages to Westville.

SERVICE ABOVE SELF

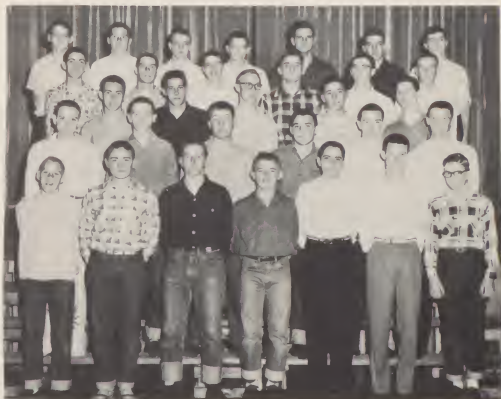

Service was our by-word as we carried out various projects throughout the year. At Thanksgiving we presented our annual service in the Christian Church. Soon afterwards we were busy collecting clothes for the Save the Children Foundation. Before Christmas we distributed food baskets to the needy of Jasper County. When the winter snows melted and spring rolled around, we donned our work clothes and proceeded with our annual clean-up of the city. Our year in Hi-Y was brought to a perfect close with our annual banquet.

Meeting press time for our bi-monthly publication sometimes proves to be quite a task, but we always get the paper out on time. SCIENCE AND SEEDS

Our major project this year as in the past years was taking charge of the Jasper County Corn Show held in the fall. One of our members, Bill Stevens, presided over this annual affair. We sent two teams, parliamentary procedure and grain judging, to the District Convention at Medaryville. At the beginning of the school year we held our annual dance and party for the FFA girls in order to repay them for the party they gave us.

PREPARING FOR LIFE

When we are not busy cooking tantalizing meals, we engage in a number of activities. We opened the school year by playing hostesses to the FFA in our annual party for them. During National FFA Week, we served cookies and orange juice before school one morning. At Christmas time we decorated the huge tree which graced the main hall during the holiday season. In February we turned our minds toward helping others as we conducted the Heart Drive in Rensselaer. At Easter we presented our annual religious convocation in the Christian Church. This year we were especially proud of our two district officers, Judy Pettet, District Song Leader, and Pat Moore, District Historian.
